FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Governor Selects Winners

HELENA - - - The Governor's appointed State Workforce Investment Board proudly announced the following award recipients for the Governor's Desiree Taggart Memorial Award for Workforce Development:

- Outstanding Business of the Year: Opportunities, Inc. (Great Falls), for empowering low-income families to obtain self-sufficiency; for offering staff continuing education and training, allowing for increased marketability and self-reliance. According to the nomination, a third of Opportunities, Inc. employees have previously been clients in parent volunteer programs.
- Individual Workforce Development Achievement: Yvonneda (Henry) Thompson, Chief Dull Knife College Extension Services (Lame Deer) for her dedication to the Northern Cheyenne community. "Chief Dull Knife College Extension Services' key to success has been building a network of invested individuals working together to grow a healthier way of living, respectful of Native culture, for the betterment of Indian people," said Thompson upon award.
- Quality Program: Youth and Family Services Program, St. Labre Indian School (Ashland) for developing and implementing, in partnership, activities to improve the chances of employment and their commitment to helping clients achieve self-sufficiency.
